

ISG STUDENTS ATTEND ROUND SQUARE CONFERENCE AT BANGALORE INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL

A team of eleven delegates comprising Gowri Hari, Habiba Abid Ghariyali, Anum Khan, Mahalakshmi Nair, Mahalakshmi Ramalingam, Snigdha Ghosh Dastidar, Sarvesh R. , Rishab Thankan, Shivam Saraf, Ankit Thomas and Dan Eapen Varghese accompanied by the Round Square Representative Mrs. Noella Vaz attended the Round Square Regional Conference held at Bangalore International School from 22nd January to 25th January 2018.

The theme of the conference was 'Transcending Borders, Extending our Worlds'. The keynote speakers included Mr. Martin Rohlmann - Cultural Officer, Consulate General of Germany , Francois Gautier – Consul General of France, Mr. Ajay Batra (Head – Centre for Entrepreneurship, Bennett University) and Mr. Raghava K.K. (Artist and Entrepreneur)

The conference had more than 100 participants from schools all over India and the Middle East. The team building activities gave the students an opportunity to interact with others from varied backgrounds and cultures. The Curiosity Show based on science experiments presented by students of the host school was much appreciated by all the delegates. They also visited the heritage site at Nandeeshwara where they had their Barraza session and unitedly came up with the conference statement 'We as global citizens must take collaborative , ethical decisions in order to diversify our cultural identity and expand the circle of human concern, thus transcending borders to attain a favourable balance.'

The students thoroughly enjoyed the dances and music that were a part of the cultural event. They expressed their gratitude to the school authorities and their parents for providing them with such a wonderful opportunity to widen their understanding of the world.
