

ISG STUDENTS WIN AWARDS AT I CAN -FESTIVAL OF EXPRESSIONS

Three students of Indian School Al Ghubra won awards at the 'I Can – Festival of Expressions' event organized by Nehru World School in collaboration with Cambridge University Press. The one minute video- making competition was based on the theme 'Making your city inclusive/safe/resilient/sustainable' and also included the United Nations SDG Goal 11- Sustainable Cities and Communities.

By being a part of this event, the students could creatively express their thoughts and provide suggestions towards creating sustainable cities and communities.

Out of the 371 entries received from all over the world, Pavan Soman of 8V from ISGi secured the Tenth Rank. Azhaan Pary of class 11 and Aarushi Manikandan of class 8 of ISG were ranked among the top 100s.

The members of the ISG family congratulate these students on their achievement and wish them the very best to continue their endeavour to be the change makers.
